

DRMR, Bharatpur wins Mahindra Samridhhi Krishi Sansthan Samman National Award 2015

The Directorate of Rapeseed-Mustard Research Bharatpur was conferred by Mahindra Samridhhi India Agri Awards 2015 in the category Mahindra Samridhhi Krishi Sansthan Samman-2015 . Dr. Dhiraj Singh, Director DRMR received a cash prize of Rs 2.11 lakh, a shield and citation from Shri Radha Mohan Singh, Union Minister of Agriculture, Govt of India in a glittering ceremony held on the 24th February at Hotel Ashok New Delhi. The institute was recognized for development and dissemination of technologies of Rapeseed-Mustard in the county. The institute was also recognized for providing quality seed to the farmers which resulted in significant increase in rapeseed-mustard production and rural prosperity in India. The Mahindra Samridhhi Awards in partnership with Zee News were given in seven categories to farmers and institutions. The Mahindra awards which are now recognized as one of the most prestigious in agriculture recognize purposeful contributions, made by individuals and institutions, in the field of agriculture. Shri. Ashish Bahuguna, Secretary, Agriculture, Ministry of Agriculture and officials of Mahindra group Mr. Anand Mahindra, Managing Director, Mahindra and Mahindra, and Dr. Pawan Kumar Goenka, President - Automotive and Farm Equipment were present on the dias.

